Well the top 2 newer starter systems are Victory4 and Venom1.3. Binary traders have liked and actually still really like Kraken, STRIKER9 Light, Ingot and Banker11 Light too although they are around 5 + years old. Now that said, most all of our systems have been based on the "Trading for a Good Living" Philosophy. That means they have been built to stand the test of time on purpose. How? We lock into core human elements that are translated on price charts. These core elements have been dependable and consistent over the hundred plus years we have price data.
