Have you ever done this: You found something that is great. So then you just keep a note on it go do a bunch of other things assuming that you'll come back to it later?

Where in the meantime if we focused on this rate treasure, this great solution, incredible discovery we could have achieve mind-boggling success. But no, something in us or rather, " the voices that come to our head" get us thinking that we should do all of these other things first and " clear the table" or " work up to" doing this great thing.

When we find the Home Run opportunity why don't we just go for it?

Well that's a good question. Why don't we just go for it!

What is actually holding us back? Find me the answer to that may help us all unlock incredible success.
